You purchased your Fluke 5500, 5700 and 5800 series calibrators to reduce calibration costs and minimize your equipment
downtime.

What about the downtime
caused when your calibrator is gone for many weeks or months at a time?

At Essco we know time equals money and we can help you save both.

Our metrology technicians have been trained by the manufacturers and can perform calibrations using the manufacturers procedures and recommended primary standards. We can provide commercial level calibrations and we are one of the few labs in the country to offer A2LA accredited ISO/IEC 17025 calibrations as well.

We also have the capability to calibrate calibrators made by all the major manufacturers.

The next time your calibrator is due for calibration give us a call and we will give you the fast turnaround you need and the competitive price you want.
